Cash Assistance/Employment Support Services

Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF) provides cash assistance to families with dependent children for a limited time. Parents or caretakers who are included in the grant are required to participate in a work program.

How Do I Apply for Benefits?

Step 1. Fill out the application.

Read the questions carefully and give accurate information. Sign and date the application.

Step 2. Turn in the application to your local office.

You will need to tear off pages 1, 12-13 and keep them for yourself.

Mail, fax, or bring in pages 2-11 of this application to your local Division of Family & Children Services (DFCS) office. You can locate your local office at <http://dfcs.dhs.georgia.gov/county-offices>.

If you or the person for whom you are applying is eligible for benefits, Food Stamp or TANF benefits will be provided from the date that we receive the application with your name, address, and signature on it.

If you are applying for Food Stamps, and/or Medicaid, you can file an application for benefits with only your name, address and signature. However, it may help us to process your application quicker if you complete the entire form. You may use this form to file a joint application for more than one program or for the Food Stamp Program (FS) only. Your FS application will not be denied solely on the basis that your application for another program has been denied. We will make a separate eligibility determination for your FS application. If you are in an institution and applying for Food Stamps and SSI at the same time, the filing date of your application is the date you are released from the institution.

Step 3. Talk with us.

You may need to complete an interview with a worker. If so, we will give you an appointment. This interview can be completed by phone.

Anyone who is living in your household and is not applying for benefits may be treated as a non-applicant. Non-applicants do not have to give us information about their social security number, citizenship, or immigration status and are not eligible for benefits. Other household members may still be able to receive benefits, if they are otherwise eligible. If you want us to decide whether any household members are eligible for benefits, you will still need to tell us about their citizenship or immigration status and give us their social security number (SSN). You will still need to tell us about their income and resources to determine the eligibility and benefit level of the household. However if immigration status information has been submitted on your application, this information may be subject to verification through the SAVE system and may affect the household's eligibility and benefit level. We will match your information with other Federal, state, and local agencies to verify your income and eligibility. This information may also be given to law enforcement officials to use to catch people who are running from the law. If your household has a Food Stamp claim, the information on this application, including SSN, may be given to Federal and State agencies and private claims collection agencies for them to use in collecting the claim. We will not deny benefits to applicant household members because other household members fail to provide their SSN, citizenship, or immigration status.
